

Minutes from Meeting Sept. 29, 4pm

- A picture was taken of us with the wine from Megalomaniac Winery a big fund raiser for frontline workers and zoomed off
- Bruce shared thoughts on his successful luncheon Sept 12 with the retirees from Quo Vadis Alumni Nursing though numbers somewhat limited
- Lynn was invited to speak on Nightingale and did so with great enthusiasm
- Lynn also gave a report on the Nightingale Society activities
- Candy updated us on her engagements reenacting Nightingale
- Anne commented on the success of our Nightingale 2020 web with great traffic on it - will be looked at for viability post Dec this year
- Lynn emphasized the need to organize annual lectures at the universities -to be organized with letters sent out to universities in the Toronto Area
- Janet commented that the reporting process for incidents at work with reporting anonymously was not the success it started out to be and had some challenges
- Some reflection on past Nursing Week activities last May and the celebration of Nightingale's Bicentenary though limited due to Covid-19
- Donna and Janet had great success -party hats and all (yes on zoom)
- Next meeting will be scheduled with a Feb date in 2021-date to be worked with